

Alabama's first EPA Accredited RRP Lead Paint Training Provider

Why choose ARM as your RRP Training Provider?

- ✓ Locally owned and operated– We are members of your community as well as being your environmental testing and training resource.
- ✓ Over 40 years combined construction and environmental industry experience– Our trainers come from the field so understand problems encountered on the job
- ✓ Contractor focused training–Our trainers speak your language and present the material and demonstrations with a real world emphasis.
- ✓ Premium training materials– You receive a complete manual with all documents needed for the program.
- ✓ Training by environmental testing professionals– Our company also does environmental testing, so our trainers actively work in the field as well as train students.
- ✓ Excellent follow Up Support– Our staff welcomes your questions and is available to answer questions or clarify procedures long after the class.

2 Ways To Get Certified!

One Day Classroom Training

This class is a one day training session which includes lecture, demonstrations, and hands on activities. Price includes all training materials, testing, certificate, and lunch, beverages and snacks for the day. Pre-registration is required. Call our office at 205-533-7660 for more information or go to our website: www.acceleratedrm.com
